

Guideline-based risk stratification process for PenA

'High risk'

'Low risk'

Refer to allergy specialist for formal assessment (skin tests, amoxicillin challenge)

Supervised DOCA

Positive

Negative

Positive

- Confirm PenA
- Counsel patient and provide written advice
- Provide 'allergy' bracelet
- Communicate to family physician

- De-label PenA
- Update records
- Counsel patient and provide written advice
- Communicate to family physician

- Confirm PenA
- Counsel patient and provide written advice
- Provide 'allergy' bracelet
- Communicate to family physician
- Refer to/consult with an allergist for further advice (i.e. use of cephalosporins and non-cross-reactive penicillins)